Fast, easy, automated document creation.

Keep your house in order with AI-powered document automation.

Lose the anxiety of missing a mistake after already circulating the documents for execution. Forget about having to cancel plans because you need to spend hours manually amending typos, agreement by agreement.

Appara's built-in legal AI drafts documents in minutes, so you can seal more deals in less time. The AI even checks its own work, flagging errors and pinpointing missing information.

Edit individual documents in the app via our in-line editing function. Customize your firm's precedents and make global changes in only a few clicks to quickly address any issues or changes in law that arise. Fewer errors and greater flexibility = less lost time and higher productivity.
